Pretty "Hints" From Paris.

Mrs. L. B. Morris, No. 521 east Broad street, was a host to many guests yesterday. The bright, sunshing weather had the effect of bringing many ladies to the shopping thoroughfare, and few were they who did not call on Mrs. Morris. It was "opening day" at her establishment, and some of the prettiest designs in feminine head-gear ever seen in Richmond were there exhibited. Paris, London and New York contributed their brightest ideas to the artistic display and some of the bonnets were as chic and as attractive as a bright soubrette. The styles for this spring and summer are pretty. and as Faster comes nearer each day the maiden's mind lightly turns to thoughts of bonnets. Colonel Wilson (colored), who had raised his voice several times during the day in behalf of the colored man's rights in the convention, now appeared upon the scene with a resolution that the two gentlemen now in nomination be sent for to speak their piece before the vote was taken, as he wanted to know whether either would kick if defeated. The Chair appointed the gentlemen who had placed the candidates in nomination to escort the latter to the room.

In about fifteen minutes the candidates arrived and Major Walker introduced them.

Fortunate is the man or woman residing in a malaria-ridden locality who escapes the dreaded scourge. Not one in a thousand does. When the emiemic is a periodical and widespread visitation it is just as common to see whole communities suffering from it as single individuals. The most vigorous constitution is not proof against it-how much less a system not proof against it how much less a statem feedle or disordered. As a means of protection against malaria Hostetters Stomach latters is the surreme medicinal agent. It will uppoot any form of malarial disease implanted in the system, and even in regions where masmatic complaints are miss malariant and deadly, such as the Isthmus of Francia, Guatemala and the tropics generally, it is justice regarded as an efficient safeguard. No less efficients is it as a curative and preventive of chronic indigestion, liver trouble, constitution, rheumatism, kidney complaints and la grippe. For Over Fifty Years

REPAIRING. A Poor Workman will do more injury to a Watch or Clock in five min-utes than a Good One can remedy in hours. Such being the case, why not give it to the best at first? I do not claim to have the only good workmen in the city, but I do know they rank among the Very Eest in the land, and what is equally as important for you, my charges are only about One-Half that asked by others for similar and, in many instances, much inferior work. A statement like the above is easily made. You can prove the truth of it very easily by bringing your Watch, Clock or Piece of Jewelry to the store for examination and estimate of expense for repairs will given you.
